

JUTA POPIA PORTAL

PANEL OF EXPERTS

Elizabeth de Stadler is the founding director of Novation Consulting (Pty) Ltd. She is an attorney specialising in compliance and risk management strategy, plain language drafting and data protection law. She is the co-author of Over-Thinking The Protection of Personal Information Act (Juta).

Ilze Luttig Hattingh is a “common-sense” attorney and legal advisor focusing on regulatory compliance, risk management and creating clear legal documents. Ilze is the co-author of Over-Thinking The Protection of Personal Information Act (Juta).

Paul Esselaar has been an attorney since 2001 and has a Masters in Electronic Law and Commercial Law. He is the owner of Esselaar Attorneys, specialising in Consumer Law, Electronic Law and the Protection of Personal Information Act. He is the co-author of Over-Thinking The Protection of Personal Information Act (Juta).

Celesté Schlebusch is the Managing Director of Jirrah Consulting, whose vision it is to bring a practical approach to governance, risk and compliance management for organisations, big and small. Celesté has experience as an internal auditor and has been a longstanding member of the Compliance Institute. She has successfully implemented numerous POPIA compliance programmes for organisations in various industries.

Melody Musoni is a Senior Expert: Data Protection at the Southern African Development Community (SADC) Secretariat, where she is contributing to the implementation of its data protection policies, processes, and procedures. She is also a part time lecturer on data protection (Certificate in Cybersecurity Professional Practice and Leadership) at the University of Witwatersrand LINK Centre. She is passionate about the intersection between law and technological innovations. Melody has published her work in law journals, international law blogs and newspapers, and contributed to the chapter on Data Protection in the International Comparative Legal Guide.

Tobias Schonwetter is an Associate Professor, the Director of the Intellectual Property Unit and the Founding Director of the iNtaka Law Tech Centre at the University of Cape Town's law faculty. He teaches IP and IT law. He currently leads several development and innovation-oriented research and capacity-building projects, including Open AIR. Tobias is an Associate Member of the Centre of Law, Technology and Society at the University of Ottawa, Canada and a member of the Department of Science and Innovation's Open Science Advisory board.

Estelle Hayes was admitted as an attorney in 2011, a notary public in 2016 and was appointed as a Director of Falcon and Hume Inc in January 2018. She specialises in corporate and commercial law, with a specific focus on commercial contracts and data privacy.

Lucien Pierce is a director at PPM Attorneys. He thoroughly enjoys advising clients on transactional, commercial, regulatory and compliance aspects of information and communications technology (ICT), data protection and information security law. Lucien has represented organisations such as the Independent Communications Authority of South Africa, China Telecom, Siyaya TV, Comservice Solutions, African Oxygen and Anglo American on ICT and information security matters. He has been a practising attorney since 1997. He has an LLM in IT and Telecoms law from the University of Strathclyde, Glasgow, which he just managed to squeak through in 2004 and has been trying to redeem himself ever since.

Francis Cronje is an Advocate of the High Court and the Managing Director of franciscronje.com. He was instrumental in the drafting and refinement of the Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA), and acted in an advisory capacity to Parliament's Technical Working Committee on POPIA where he served on the relevant portfolio, technical and NCOP committees. Francis has co-authored numerous titles on POPIA, PAIA, ECTA and RICA. He is a regular speaker on POPIA and ICT law.

Prof. Sizwe Snail holds a Baccalareus Legum (LLB) from the University of Pretoria with Tax Law and Cyber-Law electives and also a Masters Degree (LLM) in Information Technology Law from the University of South Africa. He is a practising attorney at Snail Attorneys at Law and International Co-ordinator of the African Centre for Cyberlaw and Crime Prevention based in Kampala, Uganda.

Imraan Kharwa is a Privacy and Information Security professional with over 10 years of proven experience. While Imraan has recently assumed the role of Data Protection Officer at Infobip Ltd, he has in-depth information security and privacy experience across several industries. These range from combatting internal and external threats in the role of Information Security Officer at Tourvest Retail Services to deploying privacy teams while serving as Data Privacy Manager at Deloitte. Imraan holds a Bachelor of Laws Degree from the University of Kwazulu-Natal as well as a Certified Information Privacy Manager qualification with the International Association of Privacy Professionals.

Era Gunning is an Executive in ENSafrica's Banking and Finance department, ad hoc lecturer at the University of the Witwatersrand for postgraduate students and author of the data protection chapter in Juta's Company Secretarial Practice. Era is an experienced legal drafter, advisor and speaker in respect of consumer and data protection and has drafted numerous opinions on the subject, as well as “Dos and Do not's” policies for many institutions. She was a speaker on the Protection of Personal Information Act at the Annual Government Compliance Seminar in June 2015 and has been quoted in various media publications as a POPI expert.

Ridwaan Boda is a head of ENSafrica's Technology, Media and Telecommunications (TMT) team, co-head of the Data Privacy unit and Co-head of the Fintech law unit. Ridwaan is a member of the United Nations Data Governance and AI Expert Group (previously the Privacy Advisory Group), the Founder and Chair of Privacy Officers Africa and Chair of the Substantive Law Committee on Technology Sourcing of the International Technology Lawyers Association.